DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In regard to the claim, the preamble recites a "nail ejector comprising:", but the claim recites limitations of a nail tool. It is not clear to the examiner exactly what an ejector encompasses. Is it the entire tool or the firing mechanism? A possible remedy to this would be "A nailing tool comprised of:".

On line 4, the claim recites a "shaft". It is unclear what the shaft actually is, since a shaft is not a generally accepted term in the art for a driver. A suggestion would be "a shaft for ejecting a nail.".

On line 12, the phrase "locking groove" lacks antecedent basis. Line 3, recites an "annular locking groove".

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's amended claim overcomes the rejection of Beals, Liu and Nield. However, there are new grounds of rejection based on § 112, 2nd paragraph.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
